Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel every Wednesday morning after Mass from 10:30 am to 12:00 pm. We need to establish a rota of people to cover the adoration period. If you would like to pray in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, please add your name on the list on the table at the back of the Church. We need a minimum of two people per half hour.

Love is a popular Word: 'If I speak the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become a sounding brass or a clanging cymbal, ...If I give all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.'

Saint Paul

A Message from Fr Dan: Pentecost: The Coming of the Spirit

This weekend's celebration of Pentecost is a beautiful feast. Scripture tells us that over two thousand years ago the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles, accompanied by miraculous signs of mighty winds and tongues of fire. The descent of the Spirit is the final act of our salvation which God had promised. From Old Testament times there was an expectation that God would send his Spirit to his people. So, the coming of the Holy Spirit reminds us that God fulfils his promises, even if it takes time!!

The sound of the wind and the flame that accompanies the Spirit represent the creative breath of God and fire was also associated with the purifying presence of God. The wind and the fire tell us that God is about to do something 'new' or even that God is creating something new. The experience of the Spirit this weekend changes what is old and stale within us to something new.

Why does God send the Holy Spirit to us? God sent the Holy Spirit to his followers because the early Church needed God's Spirit. The first disciples were in hiding after their experience of the crucifixion of Jesus. They were terrified that what had happened to Jesus would happen to them. Only the power of the Holy Spirit would get them over their fear.

In answer to their prayer, God sent the Holy Spirit, to embolden them to go out and preach the story of Jesus and to remind the people of the love of God. Pentecost reminds us that God will fulfil his promises, even if it takes time. His presence this weekend is powerful and re-creates the old into something new as he responds to our needs today. So, let us all pray, Veni Sancte Spiritus, Come Holy Spirit.

During the coming weeks we will pray for the welfare of all students taking examinations. May the Holy Spirit be their strength and guide their minds at this time.

Reflection: Prayer for Exams

O God of Wisdom, I thank you for the knowledge gained and the learning experiences I have received.

I come to you this day and ask you to illuminate my mind and heart.

Let your Holy Spirit be with me as I take my exams, guiding my thoughts and giving me insight so that I can perform to the best of my ability.

Please grant me the strength to handle the pressure of these final days, the confidence to feel secure in my knowledge, and the ability to keep an appropriate perspective through it all.

Help me to keep in mind on what is truly important, even as I focus my mind and energy on these tests.

Finally, may I sense your peace in knowing that I applied myself to the challenges of this day.

I ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Amen

Trocaire Boxes and Envelopes: We thank you for your generosity to Trócaire. The hardest part of the Trócaire appeal is to get the boxes or envelopes returned in time. If you see a Trócaire box in a house, we respectfully suggest that you might be so kind as to bring it to the church or to the Parochial House. We will send your donations to the diocese this week to be forwarded to the poorest of the poor.

Sincere thanks to all who contributed so generously to the Easter Offerings. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

Rest in Peace: Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear.

Prayer

Ár nAthair atá ar neamh, go naofar d'ainm,
Go dtaga do ríocht, go ndéantar do thoil
Ar an talamh mar a dhéantar ar neamh.
Ár n-arán laethúil tabhair duinn inniú,
Agus maith dúinn ár bfiacha,
Mar a mhaithimidne dár bhféichiúna féin,
Agus ná lig sinn i gcathú, ach soar sinn ó olc.

Amen

To make you Smile: 'In baiting a mouse trap with cheese, always leave room for the mouse'.

Saki (1870-1916)

Wisdom: "It is better to remain silent at the risk of being thought a fool, than to talk and remove all doubt of it."

Humour: 'Some people live their life and they worry about their destination. I enjoy the trip. Wherever you're going is where you'll end up. Don't worry about that. Enjoy the scenery on the way.'

Noel Gallagher.
