Easter Sunday

This is a day for celebration. This is the day that Christ, our brother, broke the chains of death and rose in triumph from the grave. He did this, not just for himself, but for all of us. He wants us to share in his great victory over sin and death. Let us pause to reflect on this.

Theme of the Weekend Readings

On Easter morning we celebrate the core of our faith. Jesus who died is now raised.

First Reading

Saint Peter tells the story of the resurrection of Jesus and its consequences.

Second Reading

Saint Paul tells us that we, too, share the glory of Christ.

Gospel

Saint John's description of the resurrection of Jesus.

Weekend Masses

Saturday 15 th April	No Mass in Rosbercon
Sunday 16 th April	9:30 am Mass in Mullinarrigle 11:00 am Mass in Rosbercon

Weekday Masses

Prayer for the Churches of our Parish

Lord, bless the churches of our parish; Rosbercon, Listerlin – Mullinarrigle and Tullogher. Grant that their doors may always be open. May they be places of care for the suffering and for the bereaved and places of mercy for the faltering step. May our churches mirror God's love for his people and the timeless compassion of Mary, God's mother, help of the half defeated. May our Churches be places that understand that: 'We must love and care for one another or perish'.

A Message from Fr Dan: Easter 2022: In the Easter Season the Readings at the weekend Masses focus on the Mission of the followers of Jesus. At first, they had failed to grasp the meaning of Jesus' life, death and resurrection. Once the truth dawned on them, they felt duty bound to share their faith with others. When they find their courage, the Apostles proclaimed fearlessly that the Risen Jesus is Lord of the World.

For some their message was very welcome. For the Jewish authorities, however, their message was going too far, to such an extent that the Apostles needed to be silenced. The Apostles were punished, imprisoned, and warned not to speak 'in the name of Jesus'. Despite this, they preached with enthusiasm, urgency and daily, we are told, people are added to their number.

Where did they get this courage? The answer, it seems, comes from the many occasions Jesus appeared to them after his resurrection. His greeting was always, 'Peace be with you' and, on most occasions he shared food with them. Often, they came to recognize him in the very sharing of food, 'the breaking of bread'.

Like the Apostles, we need to find the courage to be people of faith and hope? Where are we to find the courage? We need to spend time with the Risen Jesus and allow him to reveal himself to us. In these Easter days – we allow some time and space each day for Jesus to reveal himself to us and to encourage us.

Greek Elegy written for Heraclitus on his death

They told me, Heraclitus, they told me you were dead,
They brought me bitter news to hear and bitter tears to shed,
I wept as I remembered how often you and I
Had tired the sun with talking and sent him down the sky.
And now that you are lying, my dear old Carian guest,
A handful of grey ashes, long, long ago at rest,
Still are your pleasant voices, your nightingales awake;
For Death, he taketh all away but them he cannot take.

William Cory

The Presence of God

"Yet sometimes when the sun comes through a gap,
These men see God the Father in a tree.
The Holy Spirit is the rising sap,
And Christ will be the green leaves that will come
At Easter from the sealed and guarded tomb".

Patrick Kavanagh, The Great Hunger

Wisdom: Easter is the only time of the year when it is safe to put all your eggs in one basket.

Humour: Easter Egg Hunts: proof your child can find things when they really want to.
